DAYTON, OHIO 45409 AREA CODE 513 461-5500 EXT. 500

DAYTON, Ohio, May 20, 1969 --- The University of Dayton's new $4.7 million library building, for which ground was broken in March, is the beneficiary of the third installment of a five-year $22,500 grant from the Standard Oil Company through its Second SOHIO Foundation. SOHIO is awarding the grant in yearly payments of $4,500.

The original two installments were given toward the $7.0 million Engineering-Research building in 1967 and 1968. This building will be completed in January, 1970, while the library is expected to be ready for the 1970-71 school year. The latter building, under construction at the front of the campus, will be eight stories and will be equipped for the most modern methods of study and for eventual computerization.

The Second SOHIO Foundation has awarded the University of Dayton $20,000 since the 1956 major building campaign in Dayton. An additional $9,000 is to be given through 1971.
